Wisconsin Partners in Policymaking is a six-session advocacy and systems change training program designed to develop a group of future leaders across the state who are able to work with legislators and communities on policies and initiatives that will support the full participation and inclusion of people with developmental disabilities in all aspects of life.

Who can participate?

Partners in Policymaking is designed for adults with developmental disabilities, adult siblings of individuals with developmental disabilities, and parents/primary caregivers of children and youth with developmental disabilities ages birth to 21.

Partners is an initiative of the Wisconsin Board for People with Developmental Disabilities (BPDD). Nationwide, nearly 15,000 graduates are part of a growing network of community leaders and decision-makers serving on policymaking committees, commissions, and boards at local, state, and national levels.

What is expected of participants?

Partners are expected to make a commitment to:

1. Attend all two-day sessions and complete all homework assignments. Attendance at all sessions is required, from Friday at 1 p.m. to Saturday at 4 p.m. Only individuals selected to participate in the program will be able to attend (with supports as needed). Aside from attendant care, additional family members do not attend sessions and should not plan on staying at the hotel with participants. Dates for the 2016/2017 sessions are:

- October 27-28, 2017
- December 1 & 2, 2017
- January 26 & 27, 2018
- March 2 & 3, 2018
- April 6 & 7, 2018
- May 11th & 12th, 2018

2. Participate in networking, advocacy activities, interviews, readings (which are offered in alternative formats), and other projects.
3. Actively practice and report on new skills developed in Partners, including activities accomplished between sessions (e.g. meeting with a legislator). Leave Partners with a written plan to continue specific systems change work in a chosen area that aligns with Partners Core Values.
4. It is your responsibility to arrange for any 1-on-1 support needed to participate, including arranging any training needed for caregivers to meet your support needs. Remember: support people are not Partners participants and should limit their role during the program to the direct supports of participants.

Core Values

Participants agree to support core values laid out in the federal Developmental Disabilities Act. Please affirm that you support each value before applying for Partners.

- Disability is a natural part of the human experience and does not diminish people’s rights to live independently, exert control over their lives and fully participate in and contribute to their communities.
- People with disabilities must be treated with dignity and respect. This includes the right to be free of abuse and neglect, and the right to People First language.
- People with disabilities are entitled to the First Amendment right to free speech. The opportunity and ability to communicate, with assistance as needed, must be available to everyone.
- People with disabilities have the right to advocate for themselves on every level of the system, from individual service planning to the federal and state budget.
- Self-determination is essential to full citizenship. Everyone should have autonomy and a range of informed choices in every aspect of their lives. This includes the choice to live where you want, with appropriate supports.
- People with disabilities must be able to enjoy the full mobility and accessibility that enables active participation in community life.
- People with disabilities need real friendships with a variety of friends, not just paid service workers.
- Schools and communities are stronger when they are inclusive.
- Every person with a disability deserves the right to pursue gainful employment in the community, with fair market wages, and benefits, and the necessary supports to be successful.

What is the cost?

Partners is funded by BPDD, and BPDD covers costs associated with the training, lodging, meals, and materials.
