What are Employment First (EF) Partner Grants?

WI Employment First is seeking partners to engage in community outreach activities in local communities that lead to increased community, integrated employment opportunities for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities (IDD) including individuals with diverse identities and/ or individuals who are underserved*. Examples of these activities include:

- Gathering a team of stakeholders to plan and host a Community Conversation focused on addressing barriers to employment and increasing employment outcomes for individuals with IDD living in underserved geographic areas (rural or urban);
- Presenting to employer groups such as the Kiwanis, Rotary, Lions, Chamber, etc. on Employment First, and the business case for hiring people with IDD;
- Engaging and empowering individuals with IDD and their families who do not speak English to pursue integrated employment;
- Hosting a legislative breakfast to engage local representatives and community stakeholders in a presentation and discussion on integrated employment;
- Or, proposing to us other creative methods designed to increase collaboration and awareness about integrated employment for people with IDD, such as: job tours for employers and/or family members, disability employment film festivals, transition outreach events, etc.

WI Employment First will partner with you by providing your group/organization with a grant for up to $2,000, technical assistance, and presentation materials to engage in outreach activities.

Diverse Identities refers to people of various races, cultural and ethnic heritages, genders, gender identities, gender expressions, sexual orientations, ages, and religions from diverse socio-economic and geographic backgrounds*

The term “underserved and underserved” includes populations such as individuals from racial and ethnic minority backgrounds, disadvantaged individuals, individuals with limited English proficiency, individuals from underserved geographic areas (rural or urban), and specific groups of individuals within the population of individuals with developmental disabilities, including individuals who require assistive technology in order to participate in and contribute to community life.

What are EF Partnership Requirements?

- Review and agree to the WI Employment First Partnership Commitments (below).
- Coordinate and host at least one community engagement/stakeholder event by September 29, 2018.
- Attend the EF Partner Grant Kick Off meeting in WI Dells from 10:00am to 2:30pm on Thursday, October 5, 2017.
- Recruit and support at least two Employment First Ambassador (refer to page 6 for EF Ambassador description). EF Partners must co-present with EF Ambassador(s) a minimum of four times to local groups that could include: businesses, legislators, People First or other local advocacy groups, Rotaries, High schools, Chambers. PowerPoint presentations and other resources that can be used during the presentations will be provided as part of the BPDD technical assistance. Ambassadors will be paid a stipend of $50.00 for each presentation. A minimum of $200.00 must be allotted in your project budget to cover stipends for four Ambassador presentations.
- Conduct targeted outreach and partner with at least one group of individuals with diverse identities and/or individuals who are underserved
- Communicate your plans to and receive technical assistance from a BPDD Employment First consultant.
- Use agreed upon materials provided by WI Employment First (as well as materials you choose/create) for your event.
- Share resources and information to other EF Partners as appropriate.
- Notify BPDD no less than 30 days prior to the date of the event and provide electronic copies of the marketing and presentation materials to be used for review.
- Share information about any media cover/press releases that occur leading up to, during, or after the event with the BPDD.
- Take photos at the event and sent to BPDD during or right after the event for BPDD to use on social media. BPDD can provide assistance seeking media coverage as desired by your group.
- Participate in the BPDD Take Your Legislator to Work Campaign (TYLTW) by submitting 2 or more applications with employees with disabilities in your area that are willing to host legislative visits.
- Participate in a breakout session(s), if requested, at the annual WI Employment First Conference held on May 22, 2018. Additional funding may be available from the BPDD to subsidize conference and travel expenses.
- Provide quarterly updates to the BPDD project consultant and complete the quarterly BPDD evaluation survey.

WI Employment First Partnership Commitments:

Do you believe: (please check to “agree” to the statements that apply):

- That people with disabilities can and should be contributing members in their communities?
- That everyone deserves the opportunity to find and develop their best talents and contributions?
- That businesses can benefit from employees who are enthusiastic and well-matched to their business needs?
- That local economies benefit from workers who purchase more goods and services and pay taxes?
- That many of us need assistance to find their talents and ways to use them in their communities?
- That dedicated, well-trained employment service providers can effectively match individual worker talents with business needs?
- That workers, families, businesses, schools, employment agencies and entire communities CAN come together to include people with disabilities as productive members in the workplace?
- That integrated employment should be the number one priority for all working age citizens with disabilities, regardless of level of disability?

Employment First Ambassador Role

Employment First (EF) Ambassadors are individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities (IDD) who have jobs in their communities & understand the importance of advocating for policies and services that will help everyone disabilities get jobs in their communities too.

EF Ambassadors support the principles of Employment First and believe that:

- Everyone can work and there is a job for everyone
- Everyone has something to contribute
- Schools, families, and businesses must raise their expectations about work
- Employment is not a social service
- Not working should be the exception
- People are healthier, safer, and happier when they work
- Integrated employment is good for the employers, individuals, and the economy

EF Ambassadors will be asked to:

- Get training about the Employment First Initiative
- Meet with legislators and policy-makers to tell them why it is important for them to support the Employment First Initiative
- Share their personal employment stories by presenting at conferences, meetings, and community events
- Meet with employers to talk about why they work and like their jobs and why hiring people with disabilities is a win-win
- Be part of videos and Public Service Announcements to help educate others about the importance of Employment First
