What is a Partners with Business grant?

The Wisconsin Board for People with Developmental Disabilities (WI BPDD) is seeking five (5) grantees to partner with the WI BPDD and a project consultant to successfully implement the Partners with Business model of employment supports.

Partners with Business is a way to support workers with intellectual and developmental disabilities to achieve long-term success on the job by using a creative combination of natural and formal supports, both of which are provided by the employer. In the Partners with Business support model, a school or vocational service agency works with an employer to provide initial job training for a worker with disabilities and develops on-the-job supports through co-workers. Once co-worker supports have been developed and the initial job training is complete, the employer may receive funds from the long-term care system (i.e. Family Care, IRIS, or county) or other sources to designate co-worker(s), instead of agency-provided job coaches, to provide necessary ongoing supports.

A vocational support agency continues to provide regular check-ins and back-up assistance as needed. In a traditional supported employment model, ongoing supports would be provided by a job coach from a vocational support agency but in the Partners with Business model, the employer is reimbursed for providing this extra support. More information about the Partners with Business model can be found at: www.letsgettoworkwi.org/index.php/for-employers/partners-with-business-toolkit.

WI BPDD will provide mini-grants to five (5) entities. Eligible applicants include: public schools; care management organizations that administer Family Care or the Family Care Partnership Program; consultant agencies that assist enrollees of the self-directed services option; employment services providers for the state's long-term care programs; and private businesses.

Awardees will receive technical assistance and project funds of $4,999 (for each grant site) to successfully implement the Partners with Business support model to place at least three to five (3-5) individuals with intellectual/developmental disabilities in competitive jobs.

These mini-grants are part of the 2017 Wisconsin Act 323, passed on April 16, 2018. To view the statutory language, visit: <https://docs.legis.wisconsin.gov/2017/related/acts/323>.
